Workplace Giving | Collective. Good.

Make your giving go further.

With your donations to Taranaki Foundation, you will have the satisfaction of giving back to Taranaki.

Our regional focus and local expertise means that your gift contributes to your own community.

The Taranaki Foundation may be the perfect way to strengthen the connection between your workplace and the community.

Workplace Giving

Collective. Good.

- Taranaki Foundation Workplace Giving is an easy way for you to donate a small amount but more often.
- Employees can donate any amount, which employers may choose to match.
- This is a simple, flexible and effective way of giving for both employers and employees.
- For every dollar you personally donate, you will receive a third back as a tax credit in the same pay period.
- For example, if you donate $7.50, the government pays $2.50 of that, meaning only $5 is deducted from your pay packet.
- Your regular Workplace Giving donations will help the Taranaki region for generations to come.

Taranaki Foundation Workplace Giving allows your charitable giving to have a bigger impact, doing good, collectively.

Who benefits? You get to choose.

Community Foundations are local charitable organisations with deep roots in their communities that are able to advise where the needs are the greatest and the most impact will be realised.

Taranaki Foundation is well-placed to ensure your giving is being used for what you care about most locally.

Whether it's the arts, Te Ao Māori, education, environment, health, sports, heritage, youth development, social services or anything else, we will work with you to find the best way to give to meet your aspirations for your community.
